RSM advised Mubi Inc. on acquisition of The Match Factory and Match Factory Productions

Düsseldorf, 27.01.2022 - RSM GmbH, one of the leading auditing and tax consulting firms in Germany, advised Mubi Inc. on the acquisition of the German film production and distribution company The Match Factory.

The acquisition includes the distribution company The Match Factory and the production division Match Factory Productions.

Mubi Inc. is the leading streaming platform for art films with more than 12 million subscribers and locations in London, New York and Los Angeles. The platform features arthouse productions as well as short and niche films.

Founded in 2006, The Match Factory is a global distribution company for art films with an extensive catalogue of films, including the Palme d'Or-winning film "Uncle Boonmee Who Can Recall His Past Lives". Match Factory Production was founded in 2013 and has produced well-known films such as Memoria, Martin Eden, The Traitor and The Operative.

The current management team of The Match Factory will continue to run the business and maintain its offices in Berlin and Cologne. In addition, Mubi's headquarters in London and offices in New York and Los Angeles will further expand its presence.

The financial due diligence was supervised by Volkmar Berner, RSM partner and Head of Transaction Advisory Services (TAS) from Munich. Florian Mühl, Senior Manager at RSM's Bremen office, was responsible for the operational side of the project. Dr Karsten Ley, RSM partner and Head of International Tax Services from Düsseldorf, and Sebastian Henn, Manager at the RSM office in Düsseldorf, took responsibility for the tax due diligence.
